Michael Bublé - Hollywood

Tom: C
Intro: F Fm Fm C

Verso 1:
                    C
Could you be a teenage idol?
                   D7
Could you be a movie star?
      F   Fm
When I turn on my TV, will you smile and wave at me,
       C telling Oprah who you are?
                   C
So you want to be a rock star,
                          D7
with blue-eyed bunnies in your bed?
     F   Fm
Well, remember when you're rich that you sold yourself for this,
       C
you'll be famous 'cause you're dead

Refrão:
           Em Am   F C
So don't go higher for desire
G   Am
Put in in your head,
     G   D
baby, Hollywood is dead,
       F   C
you can find it in yourself

Verso 2:
                          C
Now I don't want to take you dancin'
                         D7
when you're dancin' with the world
       F   Fm
You can flush your caviar and your million dollar car,
       C
I don't need that kind of girl
                         C
But could you be the next sensation?
                        D7
Will you set the latest style?
       F
You don't need a catchy song
          Fm   C
'cause the kids'll sing along when you sell it with a smile

Refrão:
           Em Am   F C
So don't fly higher for for your fire.
G   Am
Put in in your head,
     G   D

Verso 3:
                       C
Well, you can do the money tango
                      D7
You can start your little band
       F   Fm
You can swing from vine to vine while the cuties wait in line
        C
with the money in their hands
                      C   D7
But if you get to California, save a piece of gold for me.
                 F
And it's the only thing you'll save,
          Fm   C
but I'll bet you'll never wave when I watch you on TV.
