

Michael Bublé - It's Beginning To Look a Lot Like Christmas

G tom:

[Primeira Parte]

E Ab A
Everywhere you go
Gb B7 E Dbm
Take a look in the five-and-ten, glistening once again
B Gb B7
With candy canes and silver lanes aglow

[Segunda Parte]

E Ab A
Toys in every store
Gb B7 E Db
But the prettiest sight to see is the holly that will be
Gb B E
On your own front door

[Ponte]

Ab
A pair of hopyalong boots and a pistol that shoots
Dbm Ab Dbm
Is the wish of Barney and Ben
Gb
Dolls that will talk and will go for a walk
B Gb7 B7
Is the hope of Janice and Jen

B
And Mom and Dad can hardly wait for school to start again
[Terceira Parte]

E Ab A
Everywhere you go
Gb B7 E Dbm
There's a tree in the Grand Hotel, one in the park as well
B Gb B7
The sturdy kind that doesn't mind the snow

[Quarta Parte]

E Ab A
Soon the bells will start
Gb B7 E Db
And the thing that will make them ring is the carol that you sing
Gb B E
Right within your heart

E Ab A
Toys in every store
Gb B7 E Db
But the prettiest sight to see is the holly that will be
Gb B Ab Db
On your own front door
Gb B E
Sure it's Christmas once more
