

Michael Jackson - Loving You

Intro: Gm F Eb F
                                 Ab7
Hello, august moon, where are the stars of the night?
You promised me too soon, 'cause it's been cloudy all night
                                 Gb7
And the weatherman said if you're not well, stay in bed
'Cause I've been feeling down and blue and it's cloudy in my head
                                       F7sus4
Instead of going out to some restaurant, I stay home in bed
                Eb7 Dm
But I'll be loving you, that's what I want to do
        Dm Eb7 Dm
I'll be loving you, that's what I want to do
Hello, midnight lover, you're the one I adore
And I'll be thinking of you 'til the stars are no more
If it's cloudy or blue, I'll stay here with you
We'll make a wish, and then we'll kiss, a love forever true
                                        F7sus4
Instead of going out to some restaurant, I'll stay here with
