

Mike Oldfield - Moonlight Shadow

Tom: E

^{Dbm} The last that ever she ^A saw him

^B Carried away by a ^E moonlight ^B shadow

^{Dbm} He passed on worried and ^A warning

^B Carried away by a ^E moonlight ^B shadow.

^E Lost in a river last ^B Saturday night

^{Dbm} ^A Far away on the ^B other side.

^E He was caught in the middle of a ^B desperate fight

^{Dbm} And she couldn't find how to ^A push through ^B

^{Dbm} The trees that whisper in the ^A evening

^B Carried away by a ^E moonlight ^B shadow

^{Dbm} Sing a song of sorrow and ^A grieving

^B Carried away by a ^E moonlight ^B shadow

^E All she saw was a ^B silhouette of a gun

^{Dbm} ^A Far away on the ^B other side.

^E He was shot six times by a ^B man on the run

^{Dbm} And she couldn't find how to ^A push through ^B

^B I stay I pray

^E I see you in heaven ^A far ^B away

^B I stay I pray

^E I see you in heaven ^A far ^B away

^{Dbm} ^A Four am in the morning

^B Carried away by a ^E moonlight ^B shadow

^{Dbm} I watched your vision ^A forming

^B Carried away by a ^E moonlight ^B shadow

^E Star was light in a ^B silvery night

^{Dbm} ^A Far away on the ^B other side

^E Will you come to talk to me ^B this night

^{Dbm} But she couldn't find how to ^A push through ^B

^B I stay I pray

^E I see you in heaven ^A far ^B away

^B I stay I pray

^E I see you in heaven ^A far ^B away
