

Mikky Ekko - Burning Doves

Tom: E
Intro:

E
Behind a velvet rope, we hide in plain sight
E
We're dressed in black smoke, and have our hands tied
E
She says, "I see you babe," but we are both blind
E Db
Our bodies yearning for what we cannot find
E Db
The end is beginning and I'm falling
B
So take it or leave it cause I'm all in
A E Db B
We're too young to die today, to die today
A E Db B
But we're too broken to fly away, to fly away
A E Db
Cause we both know better than to set ourselves on fire
B
All in the name of love
A E Db B E
We're too young to be afraid to fly like burning doves
E
You've been on your knees praying for so long
E
When you close your eyes the words do not come
Db E
The end is beginning and you're falling
Db B
So take it or leave it cause I'm all in

A E Db B
We're too young to die today, to die today
A E Db B
But we're too broken to fly away, to fly away
A E Db
Cause we both know better than to set ourselves on fire
B
All in the name of love
A E Db B
We're too young to be afraid to fly like burning doves
[Bridge] Gb A
Db B Gb A
If you can show me love, yeah I can lift you up
Db B Gb
And if you call my name, then I can see again
A Db
And I'm sorry, I'm sorry for the things we've done
B Gb
We're falling, we're falling from a burning Sun
A Db
We flew too high looking for love
B
We knew the skies, but not well enough
A E Db B
We're too young to die today, to die today
A E Db B
But we're too broken to fly away, to fly away
A E Db
Cause we both know better than to set ourselves on fire
B
All in the name of love
A E Db B
We're too young to be afraid to fly like burning doves
