

Miley Cyrus - Finally Home

Tom: C

I can't stop at the clouds,
 Watching the world to spin around
 Something looks familiar in the color of the sky
 Reminds me of the mess that i made last night
 It's blue as the ocean, as wild as the tide

Em C G
 I'm home
 Em C G
 In your arms is where i belong
 Em C G
 Please don't let me go
 Em C G
 Thank god that i'm finally home

Here i go again to where i haven't been now for a while
 It feels so damn good to let out the smile
 Can't remember the last time i felt loved

G
 When your skin touched mine
 That's how i feel so strong,
 When i look in your eyes and look into your soul
 If your not holding me, i can't breath, i'd rather die

Em C G
 I'm home
 Em C G
 In your arms is where i belong
 Em C G
 Please don't let me go
 Em C G
 Thank god that i'm finally home
