

Miley Cyrus - I'm Home

Tom: C

Something looks familiar in the colour of the sky
 Reminds me of the mistake that I made last night
 As blue as the ocean, as wild as a tide

I'm home
 In your arms is where I belong
 Please don't make me go
 Thank God that I'm finally home

Here I go again somewhere I haven't been now for a while

It feels so damn good just to let out a smile
 Can't remember the last time I felt love
 With your skin touching mine, somehow I feel so strong
 When I look in your eyes, I look into your soul
 If you're not holding me, I can't breathe, I'd rather die
 I'm home
 In your arms is where I belong
 Please don't make me go
 Thank God that I'm finally home
