Letra:

You say that most things in life is for free but I doubt you can be so stupid that you never see I say that you and I will never be the same but you you never listen to what I have to say

so take my piece of advice
always be nice

And you always said I'm sorry,
I wonder why you always felt so sorry

You always lie and never do talk clean you say that I am such a fake
I say that you and I will never be the same but you, you never listen, never listen to what I have to say

so take my piece of advice
always be nice

And you always said I'm sorry,
I wonder why you always felt so sorry

I never asked you to ever be with me
I hope that you can see what you have changed me to I'll never smile again
I'll never talk to you
I hope that you can see that I don't want you here
that I don't want you here that I don't want you...

And you never said I'm sorry,
I wonder why you never said I'm sorry
