

Milow - Excuse To Try

Tom: C

C G G
the words she means are those she doesn't say

C G C G
so slowly running out of things to say

Am G C G
she was not afraid to ring a bell or two

C G F
there's no one who can tell her how to feel

C G C G
I just wish that I could help her out

C G C G
but I'm part of the problem it turns out

Am G C G
she was not afraid to ring a bell or two

C G F
and I'm part of the problem it turns out

C G Am G C
I noticed she thinks I have figured it all out

G Am G
surely I get by

C G Am G C
but know this: I'm confidently pretending

G F
but that's hard when you don't have

C G F
an excuse to try

C G
the words she means are those she doesn't say

C G C G
so slowly running out of things to say

Am G C G
she was not afraid to ring a bell or two

Am G C G
she was not afraid to ring a bell or two

C G F
and I'm part of the problem it turns out

C
we're almost halfway there

Am
still getting you nowhere

F wrap it in a cloud

G
to figure this out

C
we're almost halfway there

Am
still getting you nowhere

F wrap it in a cloud

G
to figure this out

C
we're almost halfway there

Am
still getting you nowhere

F wrap it in a cloud

G
to figure this out
