Milow - The Bed Next To The Window

Tom: Bb

 (com acordes na forma de                    G )
Capostraste na 3ª casa
     C            D              G
Sitting on the bed next to the window
          C              D              G
Like a curling billboard drawing greasy ink
           C             D          Em
The silence is a crime and you're in trouble
              C                Em    D
Your photographs are cracked and faded pink

           C              D         G
The way you can remember how you got here
        C                     D      G
Reminds you that they still don't have a clue
           C             D          Em
The silence is a crime and you're in trouble
             C          Em      D
'Cause you say nothing, no you never do

C               D             G
And you just wanna make a difference
C                  D               G     D
So you don't want this, you don't want this anymore
C                 D              G
But you can never find the right words
C             Em      G
For your one way ticket out

( C  D  G  C  D  G )

C                 D           G
Sitting on the bed next to the window
   C                        D   G
It makes you wonder, will this ever change
           C             D          Em
The silence is a crime and you're in trouble
            C                 Em   D
The words are sometimes hard to rearrange

C               D             G
And you just wanna make a difference
C                  D               G     D
So you don't want this, you don't want this anymore
C                 D              G

But you can never find the right words
C             Em      G
For your one way ticket out

C                 D                        Em
D
It turn you on, it turn you off stare right, your shoes they can't get enough
C                    D              Em        D
Tickly toungue, you must recall do do needed words at all
C                          G
You're just speechless now
C                      G
We're only speechless now
C                 Em         D
You're ready to speak just let it snow

C               D             G
And you just wanna make a difference
C                  D               G     D
So you don't want this, you don't want this anymore
C                 D              G
But you can never find the right words
C             Em      G
For your one way ticket out

C               D             G
And you just wanna make a difference
C                  D               G     D
So you don't want this, you don't want this anymore
C                 D              G
But you can never find the right words
C             Em      G
For your one way ticket out

C               D             G
And you just wanna make a difference
C                  D               G     D
So you don't want this, you don't want this anymore
C                 D              G
But you can never find the right words
C                 D              G
And you can never find the right words
C                 D              G
And you can never find the right words
C             D      G
For your one way ticket out
