Tom: C

C E7 Am F
People don't sing about days that didn't happen and
C E7 G C
People don't cry for tears that weren't shed
C E7 Am F
Time doesn't stop when you close your eyes, and our
C E7 G Am F
Big ol' clock will keep on ticking till it dies

G Am F
Can you hear the hum of the hummingbird
G Am F
Can you smell the breeze carrying leaves that it lured
C E7 Am F
Can you cry for your mother and your father too
C E7 Am G C
Can you breathe until there's no air left in you

C E7 Am F
What if there were no wings on a butterfly and
C E7 G C
What if we walked a thousand days
C E7 Am F
How long would it take if we all held hands and
C E7 G Am F
How many miles could we go before our heads lay down

G Am F
Can you hear the hum of the hummingbird
G Am F
Can you smell the breeze carrying leaves that it lured
C E7 Am F
Can you cry for your mother and your father too
C E7 Am G C
Can you breathe until there's no air left in you

Am G C
No ones going home tonight without a heartache and the moonlight
Am G C G
Keep on moving on until there's nothing else to move on to and we're gone.
