

Mitski - Humpty

tom:

Intro:
[Primeira Parte]

I'll live in the bathtub
It's cool and clean
It's smooth and it's steady
It's all that I need

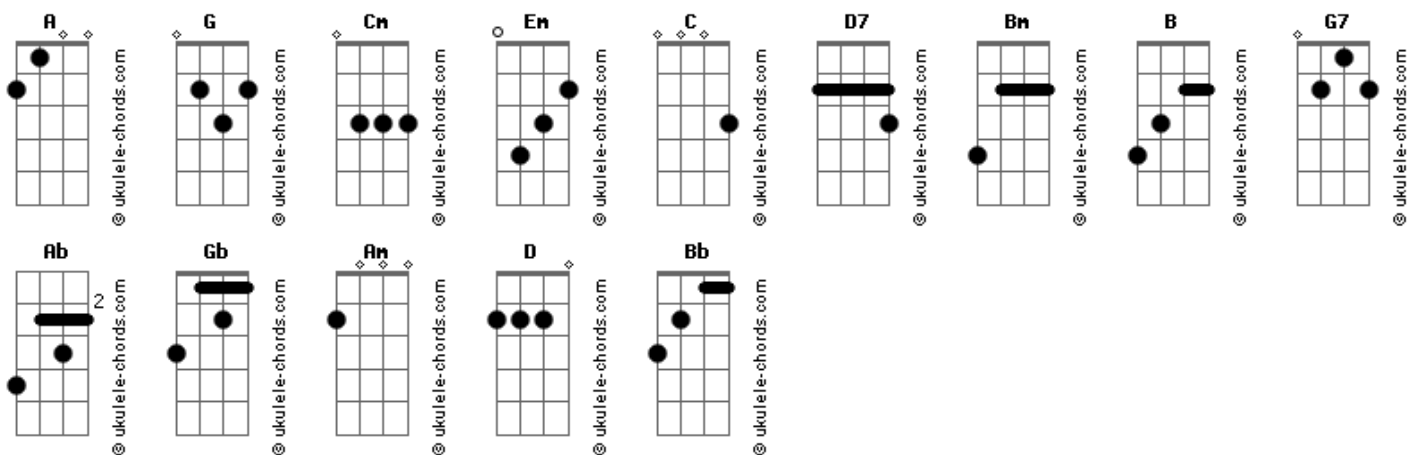

I broke our belongings
They're all on the floor
The room is now empty
Nothing left to throw

[Refrão]

All the eggshells are on the ground
And I try, I'm trying to pick them up
But they crack and crumble, it's all too much
Too frail for me to touch
All the eggshells are on the ground
And I try, I'm trying to pick them up
But they crack and crumble, it's all too much
Too frail for me to touch

[Segunda Parte]

Acordes

I'll live in the bathtub
Surrounded by tiles
All so square and so steady
I will die in their cool, cool arms
I broke what you gave me
But you kept giving more
And I'm sorry for taking
But I keep wanting more, more, more

[Refrão]

All the eggshells are on the ground
And I try, I'm trying to pick them up
But they crack and crumble, it's all too much
Too frail for me to touch
All the eggshells are on the ground
And I try, I'm trying to pick them up
Humpty Dumpty you're much too much
Too frail for me to touch

[Final]

Humpty Dumpty
It's much too much
