Well we scheme and we scheme but we always blow it

We've yet to crash but we still might as well tow it
Standing at a light switch to each east and west horizon

A
Every dawn you're surprising and the evening was consoling

Bm G A
saying, "See, it wasn't quite as bad as"

A Bm G
Well it would've been could've been worse than you would ever know

Bm G A
I was patiently erasing and recording the wrong episodes

Bm G A

Bm G A
I just wanted to catch the last laugh of this show
