

Moe - Captain America

Tom: G

[Primeira Parte]

Captain america said you gotta be like me

Or you're gonna wind up dead last

At the end of your rope

Flat broke down and tired

You sleepy head, won't you go to bed

Let me run your life

Lies

[Segunda Parte]

Clark Kent ran for president

No one knew about the secrets locked in his head

Friends tried to take his life

Accusations flew, flew like kryptonite

Clark still looking good

What you gonna say

To make everything alright

Lies

[Refrão]

May be right

May be wrong

I'm in the middle anyway

May be right

May be wrong

I'm in the middle anyway

Stuck in the middle anyway

[Terceira Parte]

Buckshot shooter had a realm of fun

With a smoking gun heard around the world

What a War of the Worlds

What a wonderful way to wage

Suicide. Lies! Pay your fine

Do your time, let me run your life

Lies

[Refrão]

Acordes

May be right

May be wrong

I'm in the middle anyway

May be right

May be wrong

I'm in the middle anyway

Stuck in the middle anyway

Right in the middle

Dead in the middle anyway

[Quarta Parte]

Captive America read I gotta be like you

With a bubble in your bed

Buzzin' your telephone, like you're not at home

Home on the range

Bread and corn fed

Won't you got to bed

Let me run your life

Lies

[Refrão]

May be right

May be wrong

I'm in the middle anyway

May be right

May be wrong

I'm in the middle anyway

May be right

May be wrong

I'm in the middle anyway

May be right

May be wrong

I'm in the middle anyway

Stuck in the middle anyway

Right in the middle

Dead in the middle anyway
