 Windows 95, you're long gone, but I'm still alive
 Eb Bb Cm Ab
 I've gone so far, not even knowing how
 Eb Bb Cm
 I suppose the world is so much smaller now

Eb Bb Cm Ab
 The plans that you made when you still had the time
 Eb Bb Cm Ab
 I've saved all the things that you left behind
 Eb Bb Cm Ab
 But by now I guess I'd consider them all mine
 ( Eb Bb Cm )

Eb Bb Cm Eb Bb Cm ( Eb Bb Cm Ab )
 Windows 95 is only a metaphor for what I feel inside ( Eb Bb Cm )
 Eb

Bb Cm Eb Bb Cm
 Although I'm older now there's still an emptiness that's never I'll remember 1995 letting
 Eb Bb Cm ( Eb Bb Cm Ab )
 Go somehow ( Eb Bb Cm )
 Eb Bb Cm ( Eb Bb Cm Ab )
 Have you ever walked into what seemed, to be somebody else's ( Eb Bb Cm ) dream?

Eb Bb Cm Eb Bb Cm
 And though the time won't let you pass, it keeps you looking through the glass

( Eb Bb Cm Ab )
 ( Eb Bb Cm )

Eb Bb Cm Eb Bb Cm
 But back in '95 They call the year the future was to arrive
 Eb Bb Cm Eb Bb Cm
 But back in '95 We thought we were standing on the threshold to the end of time (And we still do)

Eb Bb Cm Eb Bb Cm
 So what's wrong with living in the past? It just happens to be the place
 Eb Bb Cm Eb Bb Cm
 I saw you last And what's wrong with living in a dream?
 Eb Bb Cm Eb Bb Cm
 That one day the echo answers, Deep inside of me
