Verse 1

Am
In darkness, you're all around me,
Am
I know our future, I feel your body.

Am
What if I told you that I planned this?
Am
What if I want to lose control?
Am
What if I take the blame and become the drug
Am
And dissolve as you swallow?

Prechorus 1

F C
Covered in your silhouette,
Dm
Elated for your bitter end.
F C
Don't hide the shame from our lips,
Dm
Glowing in amber, burn in sin.

Chorus

Am C
Against the wall, we fall from grace,
F Dm
The pain we love is taking shape.
Am C
A burning lust to touch the flame,
F G
Over and over again.
Am C
We've played this role a thousand times,
F Dm
The same old script, just different lies.
Am C
You disappear without a trace,
F G
Concealing the crimes on your face.

Verse 2

Am
Beneath all the pleasure, all you are is pain,
Am
And you deserve every second of your suffering.
Am
But yet I can't stop, crawling to your doorstep,
Am
Every time you beckon,
Am
I'm self destructing, trust in nothing,

Am
Save me!

Prechorus 2

F C
You burn like a cigarette,
Dm
I took my time to suck you in.
F C
So take me out of my head,
Dm
And spread your ashes on my skin.

Chorus

Am C
Against the wall, we fall from grace,
F Dm
The pain we love is taking shape.
Am C
A burning lust to touch the flame,
F G
Over and over again.
Am C
We've played this role a thousand times,
F Dm
The same old script, just different lies.
Am C
You disappear without a trace,
F G
Concealing the crimes on your face.

Fall!

F Dm
Your skin like winter, I felt you shiver.
Am C
I heard you whisper, but the pills were quicker.
F
I watched you wither,
Dm
I am the killer!
