

Murilo Limma - I Believed In You

Tom: A

So, I believed when you said you loved me, and promised to never leave me. Now, I ask myself? How can I live without love?
 Without love, life is empty, my days are cold, I miss myself. I can't erase and forget such a crazy love of passion. I swear.
 I don't understand you. Yesterday, everything was fine and today, I don't know who you are (2X).

I know it seems hard to believe my heart. I also loved you, but things change and feelings too.
 I messed up by falling in love. It was not an adventure, forgive me for not loving, for not wanting to love you. I swear.
 I hope you are happy, that was all I wanted? for you to feel special (2X).
 I swear. Do you swear? I swear.
