You needed it when I was away, and no matter what I say,
You'll never forget when I wasn't there, so why should I care,
Am              C              E
I'm young but I know that I'm aroused.

A      G    D     A        G        D
You know that I care, you should have been there,
You know that I care, you should have been there.

It doesn't matter where I have gone, I just can't afford to,
Pay for all the mistakes that you have made, it's about time I was paid.
Am                        C                          E
I'm young but I know that I'm aroused.

You know that I care, you should have been there,
You know that I care, you should have been there,
You know that I care, you should have been there,
You know that I care, you should have been there,
You know that I care, you should have been there,
You know that I care, you should have been there.
