

My Chemical Romance - Early Sunset Over Monroeville

Tom: D
Intro: D Bm Gbm A}x2

D Bm Gbm A D Bm Gbm A
Late dawns and early sunsets , just like my favorite scenes
D Bm Gbm B A D Bm
Gbm A
Then holding hands and life was perfect, just like up on the screen

Bm Gbm Gm A
And the whole time while always giving
Bm Gbm Gm A
Counting your face among the living

D Bm Gbm A D Bm Gbm A
Up and down escalators , pennies and colder fountains

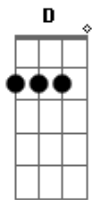

D Bm Gbm B A D Bm Gbm
A
Elevators and half price sales, trapped in by all these mountains
Bm Gbm Gm A
Running away and hiding with you
Bm Gbm Gm A
I never thought they'd get me here
Bm Gbm Gm A
Not knowing you changed from just one bite
Bm Gbm Gm A Bm
I fought them all off just to hold you close and tight

But does anyone notice?
Gbm
But does anyone care?

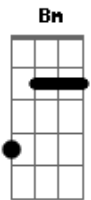

And if I had the guts to put this to your head...
A Gbm
But would anything matter if you're already dead?
Gm A
And should I be shocked now by the last thing you said?
Gbm
Before I pull this trigger,
Gm
Your eyes vacant and stained...
A
But does anyone notice?
Gbm
But does anyone care?
Gm A
And if I had the guts to put this to your head...
Gbm Gm

And would anything matter if you're already dead?
A Gbm
And now should I be shocked by the last thing you said?
Gm
Before I pull this trigger,
A
Your eyes vacant and stained...
Gbm
And in saying you loved me,
Gm
Made things harder at best,
A
And these words changing nothing
Gbm
As your body remains,
Gm
And there's no room in this hell,
A
There's no room in the next,
Gbm
And our memories defeat us,
Gm
And I'll end this direst.
A
But does anyone notice?
Gbm
But does anyone care?
Gm A
And if I had the guts to put this to your head...
Gbm Gm
But does anything matter if you're already dead?
A Gbm
And should I be shocked now by the last thing you said?
Gm
Before I pull this trigger,
A
Your eyes vacant and stained...
Gbm
And in saying you loved me,
Gm
Made things harder at best,
A
And these words changing nothing
Gbm
As your body remains,
Gm
And there's no room in this hell,
A
There's no room in the next,
Gbm
But does anyone notice there's a corpse in this bed?
