

Mystery Jets - Bubblegum

tom:

G

I'm always on the outside looking in

Cm Ab Eb

It's where I've always been

Cm Ab Eb

But the edge is where all the sparks fly

Ab

When the wheel spins

Cm Ab Eb

I swear someone is leaving messages for me

Bb

Under my feet

Cm Ab Eb

In bubblegum on the sidewalks of my street

Cm

On the sidewalks of my street

(Ab Bb)
(Cm Ab Bb)

Cm Ab Eb

Deep down I know I should leave the past behind

Bb

Maybe in time

Cm Ab Eb

Ab

If only I could learn to let go of the hand that first held mine

Bb

Took a walk down memory lane
Just to see what still remained
Only to find out just about everything had changed

(Cm Ab Bb)
(Cm Ab Bb)

Eb Bb Cm

We will splinter and we will divide

Eb Bb Cm Ab

We will disappear to two different sides

Eb Bb Cm Ab

And I hope that the world in which you find

Eb Bb Cm Ab

Yourself is better than the one you leave behind

(Cm Ab Eb Ab Bb)

Cm Ab Eb

One day we'll return and we'll take a look around

Bb

See the me and you of every town

Cm Ab Eb

The dreamers who are yet to learn

Ab

That everyone will try to shoot them down

Bb

Spilling their guts down the radio wire
Like preaching to the Christmas choir
But they wouldn't piss on you
Even if you were on fire

(Cm Ab Bb)
(Cm Ab Bb)
(Cm Ab Bb)
(Cm Ab Bb)

Eb Bb Cm Ab

We will splinter and we will divide

Eb Bb Cm Ab

We will disappear to two different sides

Eb Bb Cm Ab

And I hope that the world in which we find

Eb Bb Cm Ab

Ourselves returning to is better than the one we left behind

Eb Bb Cm Ab

Better than the one we left behind

Eb Bb Cm Ab

Is better than the one we left behind

Eb Bb Cm Ab

Better than the one we left behind
