

Nando Rose - Destiny

tom:

Am

I came looking for something
 I didn't know what
 I follow my heart
 Without any questions

Called by the fate
 With no notion
 Anyway I came
 To find out

I was called by the fate
 It had something for me
 I came to find out

Was for you Destiny

Under the sunset
 In a dream I had a vision
 Became so clear to me
 That prophecy

And when I found you
 My heart felt tight
 I felt I had found
 What the fate planned

I was called by the fate
 It had something for me
 I came to find out
 Was for you Destiny
