

Napkin - I Don't Know

tom:

Intro: Am Em D

A tunnel, a light, so quiet in his silence

So close, so alone

He don't care about the consequences

Nor all the time of this world pay this moment

The moment I believe I have come so far

I will not feel you again

Running in my veins

I will not feel your touch

Ripping my meat

Stop and stare yourself

The world revolves around you

You will no longer feel me

Understand , I don't care

This feeling will disappear

Stop now (stop now), I'm afraid (I'm afraid)

It's just a bad idea

Nor all the time of this world erase this moment

Nor all the time of this world erase you, you

I will not feel you again

Running in my veins

I will not feel your touch

Ripping my meat

Stop and stare yourself

The world revolves around you

You will no longer feel me

[Ponte] Am Em D
Am C D

I will not feel you again

Running in my veins

I will not feel your touch

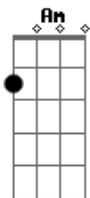

Ripping my meat

Stop and stare yourself

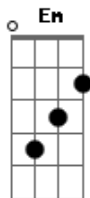

The world revolves around you

You will no longer feel me
