And a nightingale sang in Berkeley Square.

I may be right, I may be wrong, But I'm perfectly willing to swear That when you turned and smiled at me Em Am7 D7 G

A nightingale sang in Berkeley Square.

Bridge 1:

C#m7 - Gb7 The moon that lingered over London town --Gdim C#m7- Gb7 Bm Poor, puzzled moon, he wore a frown. C#m7 - Gb7 How could he know we two were so in love Gdim Am7 D Bm The whole darn world seemed upside down.

The streets of town were paved with stars, It was such a romantic affair. And as we kissed and said "Good-bye,"

A nightingale sang in Berkeley Square.

How strange it was, how sweet and strange: There was never a dream to compare With that hazy, crazy night we met When a nightingale sang in Berkeley Square.

This heart of mine beat loud and fast, Like a merry go round at the fair; For we were dancing cheek to cheek And a nightingale sang in Berkeley Squre.

Bridge 2:

When dawn came stealing up all gold and blue To interrupt our rendezvous, I still remember how you smiled and said, "Was that a dream or was it true?"

Our homeward step was just as light As the tap-dancing feet of Astaire, And like an echo, far away,
G Em Am7 D7 A nightingale sang in Berkeley Square.
