

Natalia Lacunza - Bad Men Can't Love

Tom: G

When you're <sup>Am</sup> home alone and silence catches you
 And he's <sup>G</sup> not around
 You think about it a thousand times
 You feel so lonely about his side
 Do you feel safe when he's asleep?
 Do you change your mind?
 Does he let you speak?
 Does he understand any single beat
 Of the agony that you keep inside
 Does your freedom mean the same as his?
 Can you count the times that you want to cry
 When you wake up by his side
 Do you wish you hadn't been that kind?
 Cause the world is full of bad men, girl
 And bad men can't love
 Cause the world is full of bad men, girl
 And bad men can't love

Bad men can't love, bad men can't love, bad can't love x2
 How many times have you laughed out load in the past few months?
 Does he make your legs go weak?
 Is it pleasure or is it fear?
 Is your voice as loud as it used to be?
 Can you bring back the last memory
 Of your pretty smile being twice as big
 As it seems to be right in front of me
 Is his appetite worth your plans?
 Do your teardrops fall as fast as his pants?
 Does he ever sing a sweet lullaby
 To this broken girl with a broken smile?
 Cause the world is full of bad men, girl
 And bad men can't love
 Cause the world is full of bad men, girl
 And bad men can't love
 Bad men can't love, bad men can't love, bad can't love x3
