C Am G
Golden Street lights leak through the sides of my window drapes

C Am G
Shadows of strangers dance off my walls and my pillow case

C Am G
And I cannot sleep, thinking you may be passing by

C Am G
I wish you'd stay longer, I wish you'd stay longer tonight

F C G F C G
So all that's left to do, since I can't be with you

F
Is hold my eyes shut till you're

C G
Holding me tight right where you're supposed to be

C G
And we're rolling and tumbling tangled up in the sheets

C
Oh and I'll keep on fighting the daylight

F
And I'll keep on fighting the daylight

Am G
And I'll keep on fighting the daylight

C Am
From taking you away from me

G C Am G
Taking you away from me

C Am G
Golden sun light leaks through the sides of my window drapes

C Am G
Hurry it, Stranger, sipping the coffee starting the day

C Am G
And it's hard to see, it's hard to open my eyes

C Am G
Knowing I'm alone, knowing you're not by my side

F C G F C G
So all that's left to do, since I can't be with you

F
Is push through the day till it ends

G
So I can be with you again

C G
And you're holding me tight right where you're supposed to be

C G
And we're rolling and tumbling tangled up in the sheets, ohh

C
And I'll keep on fighting the daylight

F
And I'll keep on fighting the daylight

Am G
And I'll keep on fighting the daylight

C
And you're holding me tight right where you're supposed to be
