

Natalie Imbruglia - Butterflies

Tom: G

Written by: Imbruglia, Clark

Intro: D (D) D| G (G2) G X2

VERSE1

D G
Swallow purple terror candy

D G
Don't forget to breathe

D G
Sickened by the wanting

D G
And drowning from the need

Em G
This dichromatic vision

D G
Of one who does not care

Em G
To sipping cocktail sedatives

D G
Two months to hide somewhere

CHORUS

D G D G
Butterflies, Butterflies

D G D G
Cut the stomach out and hand it over

Em G D G
Butterflies, Butterflies

Em G D G
My heart will be the bridge that you walk over

VERSE2(Mesma coisa do vesro 1)

The wolf has caught the chicken

And now I feel unsteady

Emotions on the blink again

So kick me when you're ready

Here lies a violet coffin

The death of my control

Along with all my skeletons

They put them in the hole

VERSE3

Sickened by the notion

I give myself again

Choking on the bullet, the gun-
thats found a friend

So raise your glass to sorrow

And drink to all the pain

Tie a silver ribbon around

The pieces that remain

CHORUS

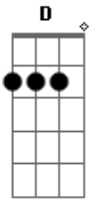

Butterflies, Butterflies

Cut the stomach out and hand it over

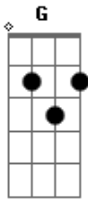

Butterflies, Butterflies

My heart will be the bridge that you walk over
