

Nazareth - Paper Sun

Tom: D
Intro: (D Bb A)

There's a paper Sun, In a paper Sky
There's an empty place, and I don't know why
That paper Sun, In that paper Sky

Can't help me now she's gone, I'm on my own

Can't help me now, I'm all alone

There's a painted moon, In a painted night

There's an empty plate, and it don't seem right
That painted moon, In that painted night

Can't help me now she's gone, I'm on my own

Can't help me now, I'm all alone

And all the pain, and all the rain that falls

Can't bring her back, she don't want me at all

There's a falling star, and it won't touch down
There's and empty face, another lonely clown
That falling star, that won't touch down
And all the pain, and all the rain that falls
Can't bring her back, that woman don't want me at all
And all the pain, and all the rain that falls
Can't bring her back, and she don't, she don't want me at all
And all the pain, and all the rain that falls
Can't bring her back, she don't want me at all.. all.. all.. all..all
(A Bm Dbm D Em Gbm)
all.. all.. all.. all.. all.. all.. all..all
(A Bm Dbm D Em Gbm D)
