

Neil Young - Eldorado

Tom: C
 Intro: Am F G Am F G Am
 F In the crystal ball the gypsy sees the villa
 F G Am The riders on the hill the fire in the fields
 F G Am She sees the mission bell swinging in the silence
 Dm F Now the shooting starts
 Dm F The bullets pierce the hearts
 Dm F G The senoritas crying at the well
 Am F G Am F G Am
 F G Am Up in the Gold Hotel the money hits the table
 F G E E E The heavies all are there that's why the deal's goin' down
 F G Am Beautiful women all dressed in diamonds and sable
 Dm F Down upon the street
 Dm F Beside a garbage heap
 Dm F G A Mariachi band begins to play.
 Am F G Am F G Am
 F G Am Somewhere a blues guitar plays echoes in the alleyway
 F G E E E E

The Tijuana dawn claims another day
 F G Am The golden sun rises on the runway
 Dm F The pilot understands
 Dm F The money changes hands
 Dm F G Inside the jet the briefcase snaps. Goodbye.
 Am F G Am F G Am
 F G Am In Eldorado town there lives a great bullfighter
 F G E E E E His eyes are screaming blue his hair is red as blood
 F G Am And when the gate goes up the crowd gets so excited
 Dm F E E E And he comes dancin' out
 Dm F Dressed in gold lami
 Dm F G He kills the bull and lives another day.
 Am F G Am F G Am

Intro:
 Am F G
 Intro: (cont)
 Am F G
 CHORDS:
 Am F G Am(occasionally used)

Acordes

