NeverShoutNever - Robot

Tom: C

```
              Dm        G
I'm just a robot, I have no fears,
  C                  Em       Am
I lack emotion and I shed no tears.
            Dm      G
I'm just a coma, a deadly sleep
   C                        Em         Am
My heart is breakin' but I just can't weep.

                        C
So dear I want you to cry,
                      Am
And I want you to cry for me.
                       F
I don't want you to lie to me,
             C            G
And say that it will be alright.

                      C
And I want you to say goodbye,
                       Am
But girl I want you to mean it.
                      F
And I want you to find a man,
                       E
Who's gonna treat you right.

            Dm      G
I'm just a virus inside your head,
     C                  Em         Am
You lay awake in your hospital bed
           Dm             G
I ain't no doctor, but I know you're sick.
 C                            Em       Am
Sick of the bullshit and the state I'm in.

                        C
So dear I want you to cry,
                      Am
And I want you to cry for me.
                       F
I don't want you to lie to me,
             C            G
And say that it will be alright.

```

And I want you to say goodbye,
                       Am
But girl I want you to mean it.
                      F
And I want you to find a man,
Who's gonna treat you right.

I'll never treat you right.

Am   Dm   G   C

                    C
I want you to cry,
                     Am
And I want you to cry for me.
                      F
I don't want you to lie to me,
             C            G
And say that it will be alright.

                      C
And I want you to say goodbye,
                       Am
But girl I want you to mean it.
                      F
And I want you to find a man,
Who's gonna treat you right.

                        C
So dear I want you to cry,
                      Am
And I want you to cry for me.
                       F
I don't want you to lie to me,
             C            G
And say that it will be alright.

                      C
And I want you to say goodbye,
                       Am
But girl I want you to mean it.
                      F
And I want you to find a man,
Who's gonna treat you right.
