 I?m a shipwreck waiting for you
                                                                Don't know how you did it but I'm sat at the stone
D
 You?re the rock that stopped me going
                                                                Like I'm fixed, fixed, fixed
Fm
 Anywhere, anywhere
                                                                You got me fixed on you
G
Going anywhere, anywhere
                                                                Fm
                                                                 Stuck, standing on a cliff
 You?re the storm that took me under
                                                                It's the way you get your kicks
 Before I knew it was you
                                                                Ain't the way I wanna live
I was already going down, going down
                                                                But that's the way you got me fixed
                       G
I was going down, going down

Like I'm fixed, fixed, fixed
                                                                                              Fm
You got me fixed on you
                                                                But that's the way you got me fixed
I'll be here if you ever come calling
                                                                 Stuck, standing on a cliff
 By the ocean I'm a ghost of everything, everything
                                                                It's the way you get your kicks
 That we ever did, ever did
                                                                Ain't the way I wanna live

Not for anything, anything
                                                                Even when it hurts I'm holding onto your love
                                                                Like I'm fixed, fixed, fixed
Anytime that you leave
                                                                You got me fixed on you
I find it hard just to breath
                                                                You can walk away but I could never let go
Come apart in every way
                                                                Don't know how you did it but I'm sat at the stone
                         Fm
And never put me back again
                                                                Like I'm fixed, fixed, fixed
                                                                You got me fixed on you
Everytime you go I come a little undone
