

New Order - Broken Promise

tom:
 Dm
 Oh, I don't know why people lie
 C Dm Am
 And I don't know why people die
 Dm Am
 Everytime I see you shout at me
 C G
 Cause of all of the things in the world that I can't see
 Dm Am
 And what I think goes on in this world
 C G
 For a mother and a father and a boy and a girl (kid)
 Dm Am
 Is that the more you earn the less you learn
 C G
 There's a fact in life where you (we) will burn
 G Dm
 And I never could believe it
 Am C

And I never could be true
 G Dm
 Father, things that mean so much to me
 Am C
 Don't mean that much to you
 G Dm
 And I never could believe the way
 Am C
 You told me I was wrong
 G Dm
 If I'm right and if you are simple sin
 Am C
 For God's sake I was wrong
 Oh I don't know how I think this way
 How you sit there looking at me all day
 There's more to you than I can see
 There's a shadow of a mother hanging over me
 G Dm Am C
 Oh I tell you out of heaven and I tell you out of hell
 And I see your life in ruins, you're just earning that as well
 And I cry out in my loneliness, well used to be your peace
 But you'll never see my face again, oh I need words like these
