

New West - Peace Of Mind

tom:

Em

[Primeira Parte]

D I?m getting pretty tired of writing all my songs about you C
 D I?m doing just fine (I?m doing alright) C
 D But here I am again still not sure what I?m trying to prove C
 D I think I got my point across but got no answer from you C
 D I?m just accepting that I?m gonna have to start something new C

[Refrão]

Em Just in case you were thinking about me on a Saturday night B
 Em I?m doing just fine C

[Segunda Parte]

D You broke my heart, broke it again, and put my health under stress Am
 D C G You found someone then cut your hair and changed the way that you dress Am
 D G To each their own, live your best life, and I mean no disrespect Am C G

But I hope you found yourself under all of that mess

[Refrão]

Em Just in case you were thinking about me on a Saturday night B D C
 Em I?m doing just fine (I?m doing alright) C G
 Em And just in case you can?t sleep cause the memories still B D C
 Em haunt you at night C
 Em I hope that you find, your own peace of mind C

[Ponte]

C D I?m moving forward and looking back I have no regrets A C
 G This is the last time I sing about you until I see you again G

[Refrão]

Em Just in case you were thinking about me on a Saturday night B D C
 C I?m doing just fine (I?m doing alright) C
 Em D C And just in case you can?t sleep cause the memories still B
 D haunt you at night C
 C Em I hope that you find, your own peace of mind D
