 Father, tell me somethin'
 Bb C
 Where do bad men go when they die?
 G A Bb
 And mother says you'll go there but
 C G A
 Wings for her and I and I don't mind
 Bb C
 Cause I have always wanted to learn to...

G A
 Fly... learn to
 G A
 Fly... learn to
 G A
 Fly... learn to
 Bb C Fly...

G A
 Brother, tell me somethin'
 Bb C
 If I take this, am I going to die?
 G A Bb C
 And he says no, so then I figure what the hell
 G A
 I'll try cause it's my life
 Bb C
 So light the match and you and I will...

G A
 Fly... learn to
 G A
 Fly... learn to
 G A
 Fly... learn to
 Bb C Fly...

G A Bb C
 Cause I'm on my hands and knees I've crawled eternity to begforgiveness
 G A Bb C
 And someday I'll be there I swear to you, God, as my witness
 G A Bb C
 For all the trusts I've broke and, let justice know, it's justthat easy
 G A Bb C
 Cause I'm a liar, I conspired, I'm a liar...
 G A Bb C

G A
 And father tell your son,
 Bb C
 It's not your gun and bloody hands
 G A
 Don't hide behind locked doors
 Bb C
 In dresser drawers those bullets wait to fly...

G A
 Fly... learn to
 G A
 Fly... learn to
 G A
 Fly... learn to
 Bb C Fly...

G A Bb C
 Cause I'm on my hands and knees I've crawled eternity to begforgiveness
 G A Bb C
 And someday I'll be there I swear to you, God, as my witness
 G A Bb C
 For all the trusts I've broke and, let justice know, it's justthat easy
 G A Bb C
 Cause I'm a liar, I conspired, I'm a liar...
