

Nicky Romero - Crossroads

Tom: A

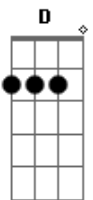

All these reparations
 Your're swearing that we're all brand new Yet stuck in tribulations
 Where the turbulence will stick with you
 And I swear I swear I swear I swore you're no good for me, baby
 Point of no return, and we're here starring at the crossroads
 First kiss that was it
 Second time, I'm needing it
 Now we got our clothes off
 And someone turned the lights off
 Thought that we found the ground
 Turns out we're falling down
 I think this love is finally wearing off
 I don't want to say goodbye
 But I'm not coming home tonight
 No, I'm not coming home tonight

Empty conversations
 I hate it when we act that way
 It's basic information
 Like there never was a you and me
 First kiss that was it
 Second time, I'm needing it
 Now we got our clothes off
 And someone turned the lights off
 Thought that we found the ground
 Turns out we're falling down
 I think this love is finally wearing off
 I don't want to say goodbye
 But I'm not coming home tonight
 No, I'm not coming home tonight
 I don't want to say goodbye
 But I'm not coming home tonight
 Oh, I'm not coming home tonight
