

Nico Collins - Head In Her Heart

tom:

Intro: Eb Bb
 She has her head in her heart
 And a broken body
 Never wrong but she always says sorry
 Takes the pain and throws away her pride
 For a man with a hole in the middle of his chest
 Promising herself that she'll only see the best
 So she stays and gives away her life
 Gm
 Paint over the walls now
 Even though they're only gonna fall down
 Every night it's just a fight
 No end, no end
 Gm
 But she swears it's gonna work out
 Even when the screams are getting so loud
 Trying to find the missing light
 Again, and again

 Cuz it's easier to keep Holding onto something sweet

 In her mind the more he lies she justifies but why?
