

Nicole Dollanganger - 700 Club

Tom: C

Virgin mary, jesus christ
 Think i just found the light in your eyes
 Think i just became as religious as they come
 I think i just found god
 Dumb founded by the glow of your gold halo
 Oh god i can't believe i'm staring at a living angel

 Give me a bible, i'll put my hand on it
 Give me a pen to join the 700 club
 Baptisms baby, dip me in the lake
 Pour the holy water i'll drink the whole cup

 Cause i never believed there was a heaven til i found you
 And i never prayed the church always told me to

But now you can count on me to get on my knees for you

 Virgin mary, jesus christ
 Who would have thought all those church signs were right?
 The lord did come and he is my savior
 I'm a good girl now i'm a believer
 I don't have blind faith cause i've got proof
 I know angels are real now that i've found you

 Give me a bible, i'll put my hand on it
 Give me a pen to join the 700 club
 Baptisms baby, dip me in the lake
 Pour the holy water i'll drink the whole cup

 Cause i never believed there was a heaven til i found you
 And i never prayed the church always told me to
 But now you can count on me to get on my knees for you
