

Nightwish - Where Were You Last Night

Tom: C

Still, spinning around in my head,
 How I regret, everything that I said.
 Why, did I tell you to go?
 Saving my pride, but losing my soul

I'm here all alone,
 still wait by the phone.
 The hours go by,
 what else could I do but to cry?

I call and I call just to make things right,
 have I lost the fight where were you last night?
 I beg and I cry I keep asking why,
 where were you last night, where were you last night?

Lost, in the darkening fears,
 If only you saw the tracks of my tears.
 I think I'm losing my mind,
 where did you go, and what did you find?

I'm here all alone,
 still wait by the phone.
 The hours go by,
 what else could I do but to cry?

I call and I call just to make things right,
 have I lost the fight where were you last night?
 I beg and I cry I keep asking why,
 where were you last night, where were you last night?

Where were you last night, where were you last night?
