

No-Man - Photographs In Black And White

Tom: D

[INTRO]

D A7sus G A
D A7sus G A

[A]
D A7sus
The city in a hundred ways,
G A
it would never let you stay.
D
Remember all the thankless days
G A
and the lousy take home pay?

[B]
D
They loved you
A7sus G A
when you thought that no-one could.
D
They loved you
A7sus G A
when you said that no-one should.

[A]
D A7sus
The photographs in black and white
G A
that show you playing close to type -
D A7sus
Your eyes against the midday light,
G A
your eyes when they still had the fight.

[B]
D
They loved you
A7sus G A
when you thought that no-one could.
D
They loved you
A7sus G A
when you said that no-one should.

[C - enter clarinet (after odd lines, guitar plays D-C-B; after even lines, D-C-G)

[A]
D A7sus

You talk so fast
G A2
to stop yourself from thinking.
D A7sus
You move so fast
G A
so you'll never see you're sinking.

[B]
D
They love you
A7sus G A
when you think that no-one can.
D
They love you
A7sus G A
and they'll tell you that they understand.
D
They love you,
A7sus G A
then they say you're much too, much too bland.

[C (after odd lines, guitar plays D-C-B; after even lines, D-C-G)

Dm C Bb Em7b5 A

[D
Dm C
Spending days on the phone,
Bb Em7b5 A
while the cold eats your bones.
Dm C
How in the world do you make it right?
Bb Em7b5 A
How in the world do you make a life?

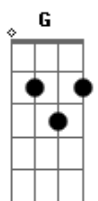

[D - enter bass clarinet
Dm C Bb Em7b5 A x10
5th time, enter clarinet

[D] - subdued
Dm C
spending days on the phone,
Bb Em7b5 A7
while the cold eats your bones.
Dm C
how in the world do you make it right?
Bb Em7b5 A7
how in the world do you make a life?
