Cifra:

Oh, there are rocks
They will always hold in the sea
And erosion can't stop their being
Oh no currents can defeat them

And I am thankful for the love
These rocks have always given

And although,
This boat is steady now
One wave could pull me under
And I'll be stranded out at sea

And I will pray that those rocks

will be there for me

And the sun always shines down on your cheeks
Could be a Blue, blue christmas for you

'Cause when the sun always shines down on your shoes
Could be a blue, blue christmas for you

(G C ) (x3)
(G C ) (x4 double time)

I love the way that your hair is always neat
And your skirts fall below your knees
And your love is so pure and so clean

Oh, it comforts me (x4)

I love the way that you're always surprised
Oh, to find truth in all my lies
'Cause you trust me and ignore my disguise

Oh, it comforts me (x4)

(G C D )(x4)

Oh, but there's no need to play with my heart (x15)
