

Noah Cyrus - It's Beginning To Look a Lot Like Christmas

Tom: G
Intro: A E G Gbm B

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas
E
A Dbm

Everywhere you go
Gbm B

Take a look at the five and ten, it's glistening once again
Dbm B

With candy canes and silver lanes aglow
E
A Dbm

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas
E
A Dbm

Toys in every store
Gbm B

But the prettiest sight to see is the holly that will be Dbm B E

On your own front door
Gbm Abm

Pair of hop-a-long boots and a pistol that shoots
Dbm

Is the wish of Barney and Ben
Gb

Dolls that'll talk and will go for a walk
B

Is the hope of Janice and Jen

Mom and dad can hardly wait for school to start again

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas
E

Everywhere you go
A Dbm Gbm B E

There's a tree in the Grand Hotel, one in the park as well
B Dbm

The sturdy kind that doesn't mind the snow
B E

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas
E
A Dbm

Soon the bells will start
Gbm

And the thing that'll make them ring is the carol that you'll sing
E Db

Right within your heart
E Gbm B E

(Am F C E F A Dm G C A Am G D Eb)

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas
E
A Db

Toys in every store
Gbm B E

And the prettiest sight to see is the holly that will be
E

On your own front door
Gbm B Db

Sure, it's Christmas once more
Gbm B E

Acordes

