

Noah Urrea - Flowers

tom:

Intro: D A Gbm G
D A Gbm G

It's colder when you're not around

And I'm the one who's crying now

I wish I could go back around

But everything is different now

Yeah, everything is different now

I'm scared to imagine

What could truly happen

Would I lose all my magic?

Am I too scared to meet myself

When everybody loves somebody else?

I hate the fear of missing out

When everybody's in the clouds

And I've been hiding underground

Yeah, everything is different now

I swear everything is different now

I'm going through changes

My life's rearranging

Finding love in different places

Maybe one day you will know

How hard it is to let this go

( D A Bm G )

( D A Bm G )

Just so you know before I go

You'll always be part of me

Without you, who would I be?

Oh, just so you know

Thankful for all these memories

They'll always be part of me

( D A Bm G )

A thousand flowers on the stage

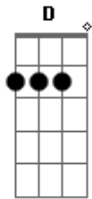

The tears are rolling down my face

'Cause I'm watching something slip away

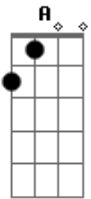

But flowers die and people change

Because of you, I'll never be the same
