

Nothing, Nowhere - Hopes Up

Tom: A

m
 When I think of love I see your face
 But when I think of you I think of pain
 My heart and mind are not on the same page
 It's obvious I get carried away
 All of the things that I don't know
 All of the feelings I don't show
 My mind doesn't know where to go tho
 Got me standing in place like a photo
 But I know you don't know
 I should know by now
 That every time that I make up my mind
 And you know it's too late cuz I ran outta time
 And you know it

Now it's 3AM and I'm on the phone
 Checking on your page while I'm all alone
 You'd think I'd learn or I'd try to change
 Why does this always end the same?

I'm tired of falling out of love
 I'm tired of the rise and fall
 I'll leave before it starts
 Cuz I don't wanna get my hopes up
 I'm tired of falling out of love
 I'm tired of the rise and fall
 I'll leave before it starts
 Cuz I don't wanna get my hopes up

I play it all inside my head so I remember
 I think about the way we were back in November
 Every moment that I waste on holding out for one more chance
 Isn't worth the pain I hold so close to me

Wish I could forget it all!
 Now it's 3AM and I'm on the phone
 Checking on your page while I'm all alone
 You'd think I'd learn or I'd try to change
 Why does this always end the same?

I'm tired of falling out of love
 I'm tired of the rise and fall
 I'll leave before it starts
 Cuz I don't wanna get my hopes up
 I'm tired of falling out of love
 I'm tired of the rise and fall
 I'll leave before it starts
 Cuz I don't wanna get my hopes up

I'd rather sleep alone than play this game again
 I'd rather play it safe than feel the pain again
 And I just know by now how this will end up
 Maybe it's you or maybe I'm the one who's fucked up
 I'd rather sleep alone than play this game again
 I'd rather play it safe than feel the pain again
 And I just know by now how this will end up
 Maybe it's you or maybe I'm the one who's fucked up

I'm tired of falling out of love
 I'm tired of the rise and fall
 I'll leave before it starts
 Cuz I don't wanna get my hopes up
 I'm tired of falling out of love
 I'm tired of the rise and fall
 I'll leave before it starts
 Cuz I don't wanna get my hopes up
