

Oasis - Angel Child

Tom: G

(intro) Am Em Dm 5

Won't you take me

Won't take me to the edge of night and make me

Won't you make me walk into the night and there'll be no eyes

No eyes that that seen such beauty, would lose their sight

And there'll be no lies
No lies that you can tell me to make things right

(chorus)

'Cause I gave all my money to people and things
And the price I'm still paying for the shit that it brings
Doesn't fill me with hope for the songs that you sing
Tonight, this is your life
Angel Child

(Am Em Dm 2)

When you find out
When you find out who you are you'll know, you'll Be free
To see your own ability

And there'll be no eyes
No eyes that that seen such beauty, could lose their sight
And there'll be no lies
No lies that you can tell me to make things right

(chorus)

'Cause I gave all my money to people and things
And the price I'm still paying for the shit that it brings
Doesn't fill me with hope for the songs that you sing
Tonight, this is your life
