Tom: E

Verse 1

[NOTE: all "B"'s below played with "main riff"]

B
I live my life in the city
B
There's no easy way out
Dbm A B
The day's moving just too fast for me
B
Need some time in the sunshy-ine
B
Gotta slow it right down
Dbm A B
The day's moving just too fast for me

Pre-chorus

Abm E
I live my life for the stars that shine
B
And people say it's just a waste of time
Abm E
Then they said I should feed my head
B
But that to me was just a day in bed
Abm E
I'll take my car and drive real far
B
To where they're not concerned about the way we are
A
Cos in my mind my dreams are real
Gb
Are you concerned about the way I feel

Chorus

A E B (w/main riff)
Toniiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiight I'm a rock n' roll star

Bridge

A E
You're not down with who I am look at you now you're all in my hands

B (w/main riff)
no idea what Tonight! is, or if

[SOLO over chords B Dbm A B]

[VERSE 1 repeat]
[Pre-chorus repeat]
[Chorus repeat]

Here, song goes to an "A", then starts alternating between "F#" and "E", then Liam starts singing "It's just rock and roll" and the alternation between "Gb" and "E" starts getting faster, and that's the end of the song.

Enjoy!!

By the way, if anybody has a take on that verse riff in this song that sounds better than the one I've got, please send it to me.

2versão:

ROCK 'N' ROLL STAR by Oasis (well .. Noel Gallagher)
===== from "Definitely Maybe"
Its taken me ages to figure out that he goes to Ab at the bridge type bit (pre-chorus). He throws in these unexpected chords fairly often it seems (see the Supersonic transcription at OLGA which is fine except it goes to D not E on the chorus as is written).

Most (if not all) of the chords are barred, the B at the 7th and theres a lot of taking off of the barre (fore) finger so it adds an E and an A. Other than that just turn up the overdrive.

Intro: B (mess around) then B A->E B
