G
You're never gonna get along
Hanging out, thin kin out loud

G
You're never gonna get it on
And be someone stuck in that crowd

G, C, D
So you call out for feelings you hope that don't never exist

Am
But don't be ashamed of your bones and your blisters

D
So come on, come on my brothers and sisters...

Em D G D
you can only be what you are

Em D Am
you've got the heart of a star

C
But the light never hits ya

And I said come on, come on my brothers and sisters

If you could see what I could see
Maybe we could all get along
And maybe I can justify
The bad things in life that I've done

So I call out the feelin I know that don't never exist
I won't be ashamed of my bones and my blisters
So come on, come on my brothers and sisters

Coz you can only be what you are Coz you've got the heart of a star
But the light never hits ya
And I said come on, come on my brothers and sisters
