Am G F F

[1ª Parte]

Am G F F
I am up with the sunrise
Am G F F
I'm tired and I think I want to go home
Am G F F
So let's go and get started do you hear me calling, crying out
Am G F F
When I run up to the house catch me if you think you can

[Refrão]

G
Oh, what a shame because I know
Am F F
With open arms then I could hold it all
G
Oh, what a shame that I row
Am F F
To the edges so that I can fall off
G
No one's to blame but I know
Am F F
With open arms that I could keep you close
G
Oh, what a shame that I row
Am F F
To the edges so that I can fall off

[2ª Parte]

Am G F F
I could be centered and in place
Am G F F
In a field full of poppies I could dream you all away. But I know
Am G F F
that I've got to get running do you hear that roaring, pulsing sound
Am G F F

When I run up to the house You can follow if you dare

[Refrão]

G
Oh, what a shame because I know
Am F F
With open arms then I could hold it all
G
Oh, what a shame that I row
Am F F
To the edges so that I can fall off
