-Lyrics-

I'm getting edgy all the time
 There's someone around me just a step behind
 It's kinda scary, the shape I'm in

The walls are shakin' and they're closing in Too fast or a bit too slow
 I'm paranoid of people and it's starting to show
 There's one guy that I can't shake
 Over my shoulder is a big mistake
 Sitting on the bed
 Or lying wide awake
 There's demons in my head
 And it's more than I can take
 I think I'm on a roll
 But I think it's kinda weak
 Saying all I know is
 I gotta get away from me
 I tell you something just ain't right
 My head is on loose but my shoes are tight
 Avoiding my friends cause they all bug
 Life is a riddle and I'm really stumped
 If you reason, don't you know
 Your own preoccupation is where you'll go
 I think I'm being followed, I look around
 It's only my shadow creepin' on the ground
