

The Offspring - Secrets From The Underground

Tom: G

Afinação: Eb Ab Db Gb Bb

Feel the way it grows when the words have left the mark
 With the promise of tomorrow,
 That tricks and leaves you in the dark
 There's something in the air,
 And there's something rising up
 Not one but a million
 That have had enough

Refrão:

Hey, oh, now
 I'm not good at going away
 I got something more to say
 Kick it, screaming, It knocks you down, it knocks you down
 Hey oh, go,
 Underneath I'll tear you down
 Secrets from the underground,
 Anger starts so far
 This is not an anthem,
 Or a threat in someone's name
 But a promise that tomorrow
 Will rock and burn, if things don't change
 There's something in the air,
 And there's something rising up

Not one but a million
 That have had enough!

Refrão:

Hey, oh, now
 I'm not good at going away
 I got something more to say
 Kick it, screaming, It knocks you down, it knocks you down
 Hey oh, go,
 Underneath I'll tear you down
 Secrets from the underground,
 Anger starts so far

Oh, oh, o-o-oh, underneath we'll tear you down
 Oh, oh, o-o-oh, secrets from the underground
 Refrão:

Hey, oh, now
 I'm not good at going away
 I got something more to say
 Kick it, screaming, It knocks you down, it knocks you down
 Hey oh, go,
 Underneath I'll tear you down
 Secrets from the underground,
 Anger starts so far
 Hey yo, go
 Hey yo, go
 Secrets from the underground,
 Anger starts so far
