

The Offspring - The Kids Aren't Alright

Tom: Db

pm. . . . .
 pm. . . . .
 pm. . . . .
 pm. . . . .

Primeira Parte:

pm. . . . .
 pm. . . . .
 pm. . . . .
 pm. . . . .

Bb
 When we were young the future was so bright
Gb
 The old neighborhood was so alive
Db
 And every kid on the whole damn street
Ab
 Was gonna make it big and not be beat

Bb
 Now the neighborhood's cracked and torn
Gb
 The kids are grown up but their lives are worn
Db
 How can one little street
Ab
 Swallow so many lives

Refrão:

Bb
 Chances thrown
Gb
 Nothing's free
Db Ab
 Longing for used to be
Bb

Still it's hard

Gb
 Hard to see
Db Ab
 Fragile lives, shattered dreams

(Repete o riff principal)

Primeira Parte:

Bb
 Jamie had a chance, well she really did
Gb
 Instead she dropped out and had a couple of kids
Db
 Mark still lives at home cause he's got no job
Ab
 He just plays guitar and smokes a lot of pot
Bb
 Jay committed suicide
Gb
 Brandon OD'd and died
Db
 What the hell is going on
Ab
 The cruelest dream, reality

(Repete o refrão)

Solo:
 Solo Refrão final:

Bb
 Chances thrown
Gb
 Nothing's free
Db Ab
 Longing for used to be
Bb
 Still it's hard
Gb
 Hard to see
Db Ab Bb
 Fragile lives, shattered dreams

Acordes

