

Ok John - Mr. Jones & Caroline

tom:

G

You should be like Mr Jones B7
 He's got a job and a lovely home
 He is a model in a family reunion
 Buying diamond for his wife
 And reading to his children at night
 I bet someday he is gonna lose his head
 I'm not worried about my situation
 I'd rather have a cigar
 If you wanna make
 The best of this equation
 You gotta be who you wanna be Feel what you wanna feel
 Last time I checked we were all here
 To have some fun

G B7
 You should be like Caroline
 She is reading books
 That were made to the wise
 She suffers from the
 Know-it-all illusion
 People think that shes a genie
 Forgetting to release dopamine
